WORDS THAT MATTER:

A POETRY & LITURGY WORKSHOP

With poet ANN WEEMS

HARWICH PORT, CAPE COD
October 22-24, 2009

Let Cape Cod nurture your muse!

Formal Curriculum

Ann Weems will make several group presentations, with writing assignments given. The writing assignments will be short, and ample time provided to complete them inspired by the beautiful Cape Cod scenery. Some of the assignments will be from scratch, and some will be started by Ann and left to the students to finish. The conference schedule and lodging arrangements allow ample time for conversation with Ann.

Attendance numbers at the conference are limited to ensure that all participants will have ample time with Ann.

Conference participants are invited to worship at St. Peter's Church on Sunday.

Relaxation

The schedule will allow for free time each afternoon, and one evening out. Participants will have lunch together at St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

A night of poetry and music is scheduled at the church. Pack your musical instrument, or bring your best verse, and be prepared to take the stage during "open mike"! This event will be advertised and open to the public.

Faculty & Staff:

Ann Weems, writer, speaker, liturgist and workshop leader has authored many books including, Kneeling in Bethlehem, Kneeling in Jerusalem, Putting the Amazing Back in Grace, Reaching for Rainbows: Resources for Creative Worship.

George Pasley, pastor & poet, has ministered to Presbyterian congregations in Kansas & Alaska, is the author of a poetry collection "In the Small Green Wood," and has had poems published in numerous books & publications including one that was named fourth place poem of the year by the Evangelical Press Association. Two poems were included in the Presbyterian Writers' Guild anthology, edited by Ann Weems.

Christian Holleck, pastor, author and musician, has ministered to Lutheran congregations in Michigan and Massachusetts. An accomplished cellist, he has played in symphonies in Rochester MI and Princeton NJ. He is currently working on several short children's stories.
