

“CHRISTMAS PERSPECTIVES” IS THEME OF DECEMBER’S ADULT FORUM

The atmosphere is informal and coffee and donuts are provided. You are welcome to join our Adult Forum in December as we explore a variety of perspectives in dealing with the majesty and sometimes the craziness of this upcoming holiday season. Pastor Berg leads this group which meets in Good Shepherd Hall. We start at 9:15 a.m. on Sundays. Specific topics will be:

December 6: *"Stresses and Strains of the Holiday Season--
A Pastoral Perspective"*

Do our expectations get out of whack during this season as we try to create a “heaven on earth” during this time of year?

December 13: "My Favorite Christmas Stories--Personal Perspectives"

Each participant is asked to share stories about Christmas from times past.

December 20: "The Birth of the Messiah--St. Luke's Perspective"

We will take a look at that Christmas Eve text from the 2nd chapter of Luke and read about Mary and Joseph, the birth of Jesus, the angels singing over Bethlehem and the naughty shepherds who are the first visitors to the Christ Child.

December 27: (No Adult Forum Scheduled)
