Why choose Trinity Lutheran School?

Christ Centered Education

“Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Proverbs 22:6

- * Trinity Lutheran School serves families by assisting parents to carry out their parental responsibilities in Christian education. We promote a close relationship between school, home and congregation.
- * Trinity Lutheran School seeks to develop the basic skills of learning; thinking; solving problems, making value judgments and decisions; and respecting self, others, and property.
- * Guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit, Trinity Lutheran School provides Christ-centered training in God’s Word integrated with excellence in education.

Quality Academic Program

- * The curriculum of Trinity Lutheran School is based on the curriculum guide lines for Lutheran elementary schools and the core curriculum guide lines for the State of Utah elementary schools.
- * State certified teachers at all levels.
- * Nationally accredited
- * The approximate student/ teacher ratio is 20:1.
- * A full day kindergarten program.
- * Traditional school year calendar.
- * Subjects in the following areas:

Religion and memory work, reading, language, math, spelling, handwriting, social studies, science, Spanish, music, art, physical education, and computer education.
